9 Dance with me Mol - ly to an old fid - dle tune, played

17 soft like the wind through Vir - gin - ia in June

Would you dance with me Molly? Do you think it'd be wrong
If you let down your hair, let 'em play us a song
Come and dance with me Molly, you've got nothing to lose,
But to dance off the soles of your old dancin' shoes,
Dance off the soles of your old dancin' shoes.

Would you dance with me Molly, Am I doing this right?
In finding you fair, you're a poor boy's delight
You're from North Carolina or from Virginia, I see,
The devil would die if you danced one with me,
The devil would die if you danced one with me.
