As I sat by my window last evening, The letterman brought it to me
G C D G
A little gilt-edged invitation sayin' "Gilhooley come over to tea"
F C D G
I knew that the Fogarties sent it. So I went just for old friendships sake.

The first thing they gave me to tackle, was a slice of Miss Fogarty's cake.

There were plums and prunes and cherries,
C
There were citrons and raisins and cinnamon, too
C F C
There was nutmeg, cloves and berries
D G
And a crust that was nailed on with glue
F C
There were caraway seeds in abundance
D G
Sure to work up a fine stomach ache
C F
And 'twould kill a man twice after eating a slice
C G C
Of Miss Fogarty's Christmas cake.

Miss Mulligan wanted to try it, But really it wasn't no use
For we worked on it over an hour ,And we couldn't get none of it loose
Till Kelly came in with a hatchet, And Murphy came in with a saw
That cake was enough by the powers above, For to paralyze any man's jaws

Miss Fogarty proud as a peacock, Kept smiling and blinking away
Till she tripped over Flanagan's brogans And she spilt the homebrew in her tea
Aye Gilhooley she says you're not eatin, Try a little bit more for me sake
Ah no Miss Fogarty says I, For I've had quite enough of your cake

Maloney was took with the colic, O'Donald's a pain in his head
Mc'Naughton lay down on the sofa, And he swore that he wished he was dead
Miss Bailey went into hysterics And there she did wriggle and shake
And everyone swore they were poisoned Just from eating Miss Fogarty's cake
